

2020 is a Wrap! Take a look at what we accomplished together!

2020 was a tough year for everyone. Sustainable Ballard was fortunate to be sustained by lots of volunteer support and a little bit of cushion in the bank. We were fortunate also to have many resourceful people who helped figure out how to keep most of our projects active amid the pandemic. Here is a quick view of how we fared over the past year.

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Taskforce Starting Up

Sustainable Ballard is forming a DEI (Diversity, Equity & Inclusion) Taskforce to identify ways that we can incorporate more BIPOC supports and ally activities into the organization. We expect this group to meet monthly over Zoom and would love some more members!

Meals with Neighbors - Join Us!

Meals with Neighbors has a new project lead - Anya! She invites you to jump in and help Sunday Night dinners every week at Ballard First Lutheran Church or meal-prep weekday mornings for the Edible Hope program at St. Luke's Episcopal Church. We are also currently seeking the following supplies: camp stoves, blankets/sleeping bags, tarps & hand warmers Knitters for the Homeless - Steady On!

Our virtual knitting gatherings are small, but we produce a lot of warmies – 51 hats, 4 scarves, 5 lap robes, and 1 pair of mittens already this month. Come enjoy the opportunity to create and keep others warm through the winter. We meet the third Tuesday of every month from 7 to 9 p.m.

Ballard Sprouts Greenhouse Project Starts Soon

Ballard Sprouts will again start seeds, grow plants and donate the seedlings to gardeners who will grow them and donate the harvest to the food banks. Volunteers work one hour per week, and we use a scheduling tool so only one person is working in the greenhouse at a time. We are looking for five new volunteers.

Join the Ballard Gleaning Team in 2021!

The Ballard Market Gleaning is a program for volunteers to collect fresh, local produce from Ballard Farmers Market vendors on Sunday afternoons and bring them to the Ballard Food Bank for those who need it most. We're always looking for new volunteers to help feed the community while also adhering to COVID-19 best practices.
